

Séminaire

How I translate pharmacovigilance data to my patients: balancing compliance, safety and efficacy

Prof. Gerard Rongen

*Radboud University Medical Center
Nijmegen, Netherlands*

Gerard Rongen, internist and clinical pharmacologist, is professor in translational cardiovascular research at Radboudumc, Nijmegen the Netherlands. Since June 2022, he chairs one of the medical ethics committees in the Netherlands (METC-ON). His clinical interest focusses on vascular medicine and his research interest is clinical pharmacology in general and purine pharmacology in particular. Starting in July 2023 he will be president of the EACPT.

Invité par l'UMR Inserm 1248 P&T

07/06/2023

11h15-12h15

Salle R26, CBRS